2. He should by himself or through his authorised agent be available at the Fields between 6 P.M. and 6 A.M. each day for seeing to the lighting at the appointed hour and at the several places shown by the Excise Inspector or any other Officer of the Department and for setting right immediately any light going out of order.

3. He should also keep sufficient number of petromax lights at the Ganja Fields in reserve to be made available in case the lights in use go out of order.

4. Tenders should be accompanied with a sum of Rs. 500 in cash as initial deposit, without which the tender will not be accepted.

5. Rate for each petromax light per month should be quoted. (Mantle, oil and fixing at the appointed place are all the responsibilities of the tenderer).

6. If the number of the lights supplied fall short of the number required, bills will be proportionately reduced and in addition, it shall be open to the Excise Commissioner at his discretion to levy any fine, or demand, in addition, any compensation for such failure. The orders passed by the Excise Commissioner shall be final in the matter.

7. The final acceptance of the tenders rests with the Excise Commissioner who does not bind himself to accept the lowest tender or to assign any reason, for accepting or rejecting any tender.

8. Tenders not in conformity with the above instructions are liable to be rejected.

9. The successful tenderer shall execute necessary counterpart agreement on stamp paper, at his own cost, within a period of one week from the date of acceptance of his tender, by furnishing a further cash security of Rs. 500 in cash or by a Savings Bank account offering as additional security and start the work within three days thereafter.

10. If the successful tenderer fails to give either further security or to execute the agreement in time, it shall be open to the Excise Commissioner to treat the tenderer as defaulter and to forfeit the deposit already given and to get the work done amani or through other agency or agencies, at the cost of the defaulter.
